ATTEND THE MEETINGS.

Your Vote in the Primary May Mean Much to the City.

Are you satisfied with the way your city government has been run for the last twelve months? Did you help to put these men in? If they did to suit you is it not due them that you should endorse them? If not did you ever tell your representative what you wanted and thereby let him know what your wishes were? He has received no pay for the time given to your business at the neglect of his own.

But if you are not satisfied with your representative, is it not more manly and in better keeping with good citizens for you to go to your primary tomorrow night and let your wants be known? Talk out in the meeting. It is much better to do this than to back bite and vilify your neighbor and stay away from the meeting. You will not belittle him. There will be just as good men as you at those meetings, so for fear or lack of companionship don't stay away. Your neighbor may be a much better fellow than you give him credit for being. Consult with him about the needs of your own ward in which you are both interested.

The mayor and the aldermen of Greensboro for 1898 will be selected tomorrow night. You cannot perform a higher duty than to attend those meetings, you cannot do a much worse thing than to refuse to participate in them and then throw mud at those who are the best that could be gotten without your aid.

The welfare of Greensboro is paramount to any prejudices. United we stand, divided we fall. Greensboro's our first, our last, our all. The places of meeting are as follows:
1. Farmer's Warehouse.
2. Court House.
3. Mayor's Office over Market House.
4. Banner Warehouse.
5. Morrison's Store.
6. Graded School, South Greensboro.

Death of Mr. Frank Lindsay.
Special to the Telegram.

Reidsville, April 27—Mr. Frank M. Lindsay died at his home here last night at 11 o'clock, of consumption, aged about 24 years. He had been a sufferer from consumption for several years, and for the last six months had been growing worse, being unable to speak for several months and was compelled to write what he wished to tell others.

This death is particularly sad in that it is the second from consumption in the family within the last two months. The funeral services were held in the Methodist church this afternoon at 3 o'clock, conducted by Rev. S. H. Hilliard. The interment took place in the family burial ground.

He leaves a brother, two sisters and numerous friends to mourn his demise.

Both of the military companies here, the Reidsville Light Infantry and the Reidsville Rifles, have volunteered to fight for Uncle Sam. So soon as the required number of men—84 to each company—is secured the recruits will be ready for marching orders.

Rings Like a Bell.

The letter of Hon. Alfred Moore Waddell to National Chairman Jones, reproduced in this paper from the Raleigh Post, rings like a bell. He states with admirable force and clearness the argument against entering into a deal with Butler. He is not willing to see his party "enter the open market and bid against the republican party for Mr. Butler and his followers." If Mr. Butler wants to undo his foul work, it is very easy for him to do so, but Col. Waddell is not willing to pay him for it, and he will never agree to accomplish the rescue of North Carolina by "offering a higher price to the demagogues who betrayed her to return to their duty, than that offered by their present allies to remain with them." He "will be no party to any such infamous transaction." He "would sooner make war upon such scoundrels than to yield to their demands. If we cannot win without such dishonorable methods, let defeat come. We have stood it heretofore, and can stand it again better than win by such means."

The clarion voice of Col. Waddell will pierce to every nook and corner of North Carolina; its music will be welcomed and responded to everywhere, and his ringing utterances will cause the trimmers and the traders to quake. Would to God that the other men of the State, of like ability, standing, character and approved devotion to North Carolina, her honor and her welfare, would speak out in like terms, instead of leaving the newspapers to bear all of the odium and detraction which has come to be the portion of those who stand out in this day for political consistency and integrity! Would to God the democratic hosts of North Carolina were permitted this year to follow the waving plume of a Waddell—the sign and oriflamme of victory!—Charlotte Observer.

THE RECRUITING OFFICE.

Captain Gray Has Opened the Way For Volunteers.

In the Telegram today will be found a call by Captain R. Percy Gray for volunteers in this city and section. Railroads and other corporations have notified their employees that all who wish to volunteer can do so with the assurance that they will get their places back as soon as they are discharged.

The Telegram has made a similar offer to its employees. Other branches of business in Greensboro, will no doubt extend to their employees a like opportunity. Many people do not think the hostilities will be of long duration and the required number would, perhaps, be enlisted in a short time if every one felt secure in the matter of employment on their return. It is nothing more than a patriotic duty in employers to give them a chance any way, to go or not to go as they see fit.

Spain is beginning to learn that diplomacy captures no prizes.

A problem: If a cruiser can make 20 knots when it is the chaser, how many knots can it make when it is the chased?

Capturing prizes may not be so exciting as fighting warships but it pays a great deal better and is not nearly so dangerous.

Spain has been mauling so much about her belligerent wrongs that it is really refreshing to have her shift the topic to belligerent rights.

Governor Russell has decided to mobilize the troops at Wilmington. Possibly His Excellency is afraid that hostile fleets may bombard his rice farm.

What with John Wanamaker's dry goods contingent and Theodore Roosevelt's cow boy aggregation there will certainly be no lack of variety in the invading army.

Judging by the reports it is very difficult to tell which is playing the more important part in the blockade of Havana the United States warships or the newspaper dispatch boats.

The fact that a Spanish steamer with lights out slipped through the blockading squadron despite search lights is not reassuring in view of Spain's large supply of torpedo boats.

One depressing feature about the introduction of rifles of high penetrative power is the great falling off in the beautiful little stories relating how a volume of poems, a batch of tracts, or a bundle of billet-doux in the soldier's breast pocket saved his life.

The democrats in congress are kicking because they were not consulted in the formulation of a war revenue measure. The democrats should be content. They will have no cause to complain of neglect when the bill reaches the collecting stage.

The Greeks are said to be exceedingly anxious to enlist in the United States army to fight Spain. In as much as the Turks still hold a good slice of Grecian territory it would seem that Greeks might find employment for their martial spirit nearer home.

Those who are clamoring for the immediate bombardment of Havana forget that a naval battle will be the real test of strength, and that in the bombardment the fleet might be so crippled and might exhaust its ammunition to an extent that would lessen its chances of victory in a conflict with the fleet of Spain.

Billy Lillloyd Garrison and an emetic are responsible for the following characteristic bit of Bostonese anent the proposed appointment of Fitzhugh Lee a major-general:
And, for "the guilt of treason," what have the penalties been in the past that should frighten one in the present? The chief distinction of the General our soldiers are to follow to their slaughter is that he was not only a traitor to his country, but to liberty. The treason of 1861 is a precious possession in 1898.

At least Garrison is not a precious possession in 1898. If all Americans were Garrisonians a single Spanish regiment could depopulate the country.

It is more than probable that if a decisive battle is not fought within the next two weeks the world will have to wait for some other occasion to determine the value of the modern battle-ship. In more ways than one Spain is on the ragged edge. Her populace is rapidly becoming uncontrollable and unless she can speedily show some victories in the conflict with the United States, it is more than probable that the elements of anarchy and unrest will make an end of the present dynasty, and pandemonium will break loose in the peninsula. Both her political and financial systems are rotten to the core and are tottering to a fall. She is preparing to reap the legitimate result of four centuries of blood and debauchery.

A COLORED MAN'S SPEECH.

Delivered Before the St. Matthews Literary Society.

The following is the speech of D. J. Gilmer delivered at St. Matthews church on Monday night, the occasion being a public debate before the literary society of that church:

Mr. President, Ladies and Gentlemen:—In reiterating our subject for discussion this evening I can but silently applaud the move, and sincerely act in the negative of the subject: "Resolved, That the negroes should support the nominees of the republican party." So-called good negroes repudiate members of our race by casting them aside when they become obviously corrupt, but when the republican conventions choose their Anglo-Saxon vagabonds, we are forced to support them or tolerate the gibes and sneers of our race. And now, Mr. W. B. Windsor, a leading young man of our race, is supporting with all his eloquence, a resolution that means nothing more than for us to remain as serfs of the republican party. If it were right for Hezekiah Judger to leave the democratic party and support the nominees of the republican party in order to get the Consular Generalship to Brazil, it is right for negro carpenters, brick masons and other negro mechanics to support the local nominees of any party that they think will furnish them with contracts of various kinds that will enable them to meet their necessary demands through life.

White men believe in retributive justice at the ballot box, and regardless of party ties they execute their belief, and negro men should do the same without being rebuked by other negroes.

Mr. President, you know that by the negroes of Mississippi supporting immoral and corrupt nominees of the republican party of that state, their election law was enacted in order that a clean government might exist, and its result disfranchised thousands of helpless and inoffensive negroes of former days; and if the negro voters of North Carolina will oppose the villains of the republican party of our state the suffrage law will remain as is. Or, if we continue in our political blindness, the law may change, because the debauchery and immorality that is being carried on in some of the state departments, and the outrage upon an inmate of our state prison by one of its officials cannot longer be endured by the Christian citizens of North Carolina.

In our municipal election of 1897 I supported every nominee representing the Jeffersonian democracy, not as a democrat, but as a conservative citizen, because the hoodlums of the republican party of Greensboro arranged themselves against the Christian nominees of the former. If we negroes are Christians we should stop supporting the knaves of the republican party without fearing the rebukes of the disreputable blackguards of our race, for no man capable of a manly thought would think of reprimanding another for honestly exercising his freedom, and they that do it, make us blush for the race which can harbor so vile a brood.

Mr. Seward, in an official conversation with Mr. Lincoln, asked him if his emancipation proclamation was issued to give to the republican party the negroes' votes. "Why no," said Mr. Lincoln, "to do that would merely be taking them from the masters that support them and turn them over to masters that will not support them." It is wrong for parents to teach their sons to support the republican party nominees, for what suits the father in 1898 may not suit the son or anybody else in 1908. Teach them to support men that will serve the American people as did Senator Blair, a republican of New Hampshire, and Senator Vance, a democrat, of North Carolina. Side by side they stood in the United States Senate for free thought, free speech and for Christian souls; for unshackled manhood, for untarnished womanhood and for free ballots. The bond of lofty purpose drew them by common impulse to the defense of human rights. Senator Blair abides with us still, but Senator Vance, some few years ago, joined the celestial throng, there to dwell with God, our Father, as a reward for his good deeds while in the United States Senate. If I could voice a common sentiment I would say let the deeds and doings of such men be to us forever more incentives to noble manhood. I can but repeat the old, old story so often told, so often unheeded by us, that lives of useful and disinterested service to mankind is the only true life the world approves, it is the teachings of Confucius, of Zoroaster, and of Christ.

If the majority of the negro men of North Carolina would not have supported the gubernatorial nominees of the republican party in the election of 1896, the selfish and sordid deals, and the nonsensical acts of His Excellency would not be as it is a disgrace upon our commonwealth, for some one else would have been our governor. When colored men oppose the nominees selected by the mercenary delegates of the republican convention, it will prove to the American people that negroes will condemn the wrong. The noonday of freedom and of equal rights will never come to the negro race until we men oppose the atrocious nominees of the republican party and represent our willingness to die like men in defending the right and condemning the wrong and when we will have acquired such principles we can then sing with one glorious praise, "My country, 'tis of thee, sweet land of liberty."

Mr. president, ladies and gentlemen, the ignorant white men of the democratic party deserted it because the intelligent men of their party would not let them be put before the people as rulers and joined hand in hand with the white republicans as populist and republican reformers, and the negroes of the republican party placed them in the judicial, legislative and executive departments of North Carolina, and in order that the same departments be freed from infamy and vice, an appeal has been made to the white men of North Carolina with no intent to harm us, but alleging that "the negroes' allegiance to the republican party or its allies cannot be disturbed by the corrupt and disgraceful conduct of those for whom he votes." We say its wrong for white people to judge or class us by our color—how can they do otherwise when we all support one political party? Some of us claim that our difference of opinion relative to church affairs is because we all are guided by one Holy Bible. If that be true every political party in America is piloted by the constitution of the United States.

The music of the band draws the strollers of the boulevard together, without knowing the title of the music that is being played. So does the republican party draw the negro regardless of its platform, or the moral standing of its nominees. The majority of white men of the republican party of North Carolina get offices and rise to fame, while its negro support-

Mr. McBride Holt says:

Greensboro, N. C., July 16, 1897.

Oneida Cotton Mills:
About two and a half years ago my little boy about 4 years, and my little girl about two years, each had an enlargement of the glands about the ears. The trouble appearing on each about the same time, I was inclined to think it mumps, but soon observing to the contrary, I called in the doctor, who said the trouble came from colds, prescribing accordingly, yet swelling continued to grow until each had to hold for the lance, the little boy having been lanced in three places and at three times, his face at times looking alarming. The nature of the trouble was termed one thing by one and another thing by another. This, however, did not concern me, as I was looking for a cure, and Mrs. Joe Person's Remedy having been called to my attention so often and so favorably, I dropped the treatment from the doctor and commenced to use Mrs.
Joe Person's Remedy. To say that the results obtained have been satisfactory is putting it in mild terms, the children, and especially the little boy, being entirely well, yet wearing the scars that will ever keep fresh in my memory the merits of Mrs. Joe Person's Remedy. Respt.

RUSSELL OVERRULED.

The North Carolina State Guard Will be Mobilized at Raleigh.

Washington, April 25—Gov. Russell, of North Carolina, today telegraphed the war department that this state would furnish the two regiments of light infantry and one heavy battery of artillery, composed of the 2,584 men apportioned to the state, and that they would be mobilized at Wrightsville, near Wilmington, N. C.

The troops will not be mobilized at Wrightsville, however, but at Raleigh, the point selected by the secretary of War, he having the authority to designate the places of the mobilization of the troops of each state, enlisting in the service of the government, and Raleigh having already been selected by him, and orders to that effect having been issued.

A Street Duel.

Statesville, April 26—A street duel occurred here about 1 o'clock today between Col. H. C. Cowles and Capt.
W. H. Gregory. Yesterday they had a misunderstanding about the price of some cotton and today Capt. Gregory spoke to Col. Cowles and drew his pistol and began firing. Col. Cowles immediately returned the fire. After the first shot Capt. Gregory took refuge behind a tree and from this position continued to fire. Col. Cowles advanced to the tree and failing to strike him with his pistol, grappled with Capt. Gregory and together they "scrapped" on the sidewalk until friends separated them. Neither received any injury.

Wilmington Defended.

Wilmington, April 26—The work of defending the entrance to this city by batteries of mines has been completed and the government has issued regulations for the navigation of the Cape Fear river by friendly vessels. No vessel will be allowed to pass up between the hours of 8 p. m. and 4 a. m.
During the day vessels will be stopped by patrol boats, orders from which they must obey at the risk of being fired upon by the batteries. The first vessel to pass up under the new regulations was the Oneida, Captain Staples, which arrived tonight, about 12 hours behind time, owing to head winds.

Mr. Kitchen's New Plan.

Washington, April 26—Congressman Kitchen, in order to avert the increased internal revenue taxation on tobacco, and at the same time provide revenue to conduct the war, has introduced a bill to coin the silver bullion now in the treasury; also to issue, if necessary, $500,000,000 of legal tender notes, redeemable at stated periods, until 1909.

Old People.

Old people who require medicine to regulate the bowels and kidneys will find the true remedy in Electric Bitters.
This medicine does not stimulate and contains no whiskey nor other intoxicant, but acts as a tonic and alterative.
It acts mildly on the stomach and bowels, adding strength and giving tone to the organs, thereby aiding nature in the performance of the functions.
Electric Bitters is an excellent appetizer and aids digestion. Old people find it just exactly what they need.

ers dwell in abject poverty, and sleep in unknown graves actuated only in life by motives of patriotism and self forgetfulness in honoring God and serving the republican party, and when I think of it I'm forced to paraphrase the motto of "Puck"—"what fools we mortals be." Thirty-three years of unrelenting toil and loyalty is sufficient compensation for the claimed good the republican party did for the negroes. The framers of the republican platform have principles different from those that Mr. Lincoln, Grant and Garfield had, and they caused the negroes to groan and kick after elections, but still the negro politicians go galloping around on election times longing for the white republican nominees like frogs in the spring time curtailing their real domestic auxiliaries and making themselves fools, while the white republican nominees stand on divine summits where all life is bliss and all love-life, building mansions and honor for themselves and their prosperity; kindling good will to men in all parties, otherwise blind to every cause capable of helping the negro.

The blue and gray of 1891-5 is a thing of the past, the north, south the east and west, today is a solid union recognizing as their fathers did the symbol of revolutionary glory and unity and as the states have come together for the right, so must we and the white man come together at the ballot-box and political alliance, regardless of race, color or petty neu-tralities of men. Dr. J. C. Price, while on earth and president of Livingstone College, privately advocated that negroes should not support the nominees of the republican party. Mr.
Price's literary creations; resonant with kindness for all, malice to none, sounded all depths of negro suffering in North Carolina, all heights of reasonable equality, defending the weak, righting the wronged, strong and clear, gentle and sweet, rang out his silvery tones which with his common sense language kept the "Jim Crow Law" from being enacted in our State. Demanded for the honest negroes the respect of the Anglo Saxons of North Carolina, now stirring men and women to quicker action and diviner perceptions, then bursting triumphant away and beyond human sight into prophetic vision and rhythmic attune with that celestial chorus which the evening stars and angel voices sang together with the white and black men of North Carolina:

"Peace on earth good will to men, Remain with us forever Joined as we are by Christian love,
The same no law shall sever.

A COLLECTOR OF OLD BOOTS.

Queen of Italy is Affected With a Strange Fad.
The Queen of Italy is enthusiastically following the fad of collecting old boots and shoes of celebrated persons. She possesses the shoes of Marie Antoinette, Mary Stuart, the Empress Josephine, Queen Anne; and the Empress Catherine of Russia, Lady Emyntrude Malet, wife the British Ambassador at Berlin has a beautiful collection. They are of all shapes and sizes from satin ball shoes to boots made for long tramps through the snow.

When the Methodist conference at Lawrence, Kan., was almost ready to close, some of the ministers were discussing the appointments and agreed among themselves that everything was coming out satisfactorily, the appointments having all fixed up. Then another preacher bade his brethren not to be too sure. "For," said he, "I was in conference with Bishop Fowler once and we fixed everything up, and then the Bishop asked to be allowed to commune with God awhile. The rest of us retired, and from the condition in which we found the appointments when we came back, I should say that, if the Bishop talks with God again today, he is likely to break that slate of ours into pieces so small we can't write our names on them

Will Again Petition Congress.

Winston, April 26—Three of Winston's tobacco manufacturers left for Washington this evening to meet committees from Richmond, Danville and Martinsville. It is their intention to again petition Congress relative to the increase of tax on tobacco.

What It Means.

When we advertise that we will guarantee Dr. King's New Discovery, Electric Bitters, Bucklen's Arnica Salve, or Dr. King's New Life Pills, it means that we are authorized by the proprietors to sell these remedies on a positive guarantee; that if purchaser is not satisfied with results, we will refund the purchase price. These medicines have been sold on this guarantee for many years and there should be no more conclusive evidence of their great merit. Ask about them and give them a trial. Sold at C. E.
Holton's drug store.

The house was beautifully decorated with palms, ferns, potted plants, roses, carnations, spirea, wild honey-suckle, dogwood blossoms and butter-cups. The dining room was particularly noticeable, the table being a marvel in linen, pink satin ribbon, roses and wild honey-suckle, the beauty of the arrangement being greatly enhanced by the soft, mellow light from the many candles, with pink shades, set in silver candelabra.

Mrs. Bynum was assisted by Mesdames R. T. Pope, Chalmers Glenn, W. E. Allen, C. R. Brown, B. C. Sharpe and T. C. Gales; Misses Fry, Ballard, Horry and De Butts, of Greensboro, and Mrs. Thomas, of Waynesville, all in evening dress.

MR. YOUNG AT STAUB'S.

Made a Most Favorable Impression on His Audience.

Those who missed Mr. Young's performance of the old favorite David Garrick, have been deprived of a genuine treat. Mr. Young's art is delicate and refined and he played the part requiring such versatility with consummate skill. He has the quality of being, not acting, his part, and his striking personality is greatly in harmony with our preconceived ideas of that great actor of the eighteenth century.

Mr. Young's versatility is especially noticeable in the scenes in which he shows intoxication in order to destroy the infatuation which has sprung up in a young girl's heart for the noted actor. In truth his work in this part is immense, and would not have been unworthy of many an actor of maturer years and greater fame.

Mr. Young is a southerner and an artist of whom every southerner should be proud, and whose career will be watched with great interest by all those who have hope that real tragedy and comedy will not pass from the American stage.

Miss Johnson interpreted the part of Ada Ingot with much grace, and Mr. Pierson portrayed the part of the stern parent with no little art. As a whole the company is exceedingly well balanced.

Mr. Young will present this play at the Academy of Music next Tuesday night, May 3d.

Our Opening Day

Was a most emphatic success. It was not an opening simply in name, where a handful of old, decrepit or discarded styles were shown, but it was a glorious opening. Every article fresh as the morning dew, and it will go on tomorrow and all the balance of the week with a vigor, with an earnestness created only by bargains superabundant beyond any ever displayed in this city. Our display of

New Silks, Organdies,

Lawns, Laces,

etc., etc.

was voted by every lady who attended as the most successful, the most novel and original display ever shown in Greensboro.

All those fetching swaggers and up-to-date styles that would cost double everywhere else, are here tomorrow and all the balance of the week.

We shall never deviate from the policy originally laid down of handling only the best goods.

We know to a certainty that true success must be based upon the substantial rock of quality, and to handle nothing but the best would never satisfy either ourselves or the public.

But such universal popularity as our store has attained in so short a time is not based solely upon carrying the best merchandise, we make it a point to sell at small margins of profit, never making a price on an article until we know it is the lowest figure at which that article can be sold. The public will soon learn to know this.

We heartily thank the people of Greensboro for the hearty welcome they have extended us.
